Important Indian Decision.

Assistant Attorney General Hall, of the In-terior Department, has rendered a decision, approved by the Secretary, which will enable the Poyallup Indian commission to conclude its work and dispose of the lands. There was a commission and the statute under which the allotments were made, and the commission has been awaiting the opinion of the department which holds that all lands patented to an Indian family is jointly owned by all members of the family and the written consent of each must be obtained to sell the lands. The commission is empowered to appeint guardians for minor
